Chicken Drum Skin Remover Invention In Search of Licensee

An innovative new product designed to address a common need related to food consumption, the Chicken Drum Skin Remover, has been developed by Frantz Gilbert and Gurpreet Singh of Columbus, Ohio. The invention's unique design allows its users to safely and efficiently remove the skin from a chicken drumstick before it is set to cook.

The Chicken Drum Skin Remover eliminates the need for the dangerous practice of utilizing a knife to accomplish the same goal. The product is simple to operate for any user. Additionally, the Chicken Drum Skin Remover is safe for consumers of all ages. Furthermore, it is easily and conveniently portable to any location. Moreover, the Chicken Drum Skin Remover saves considerable preparation time and enhances the enjoyment of a meal. It will also be competitively priced and made from durable materials, adding to its appeal and making it a wise investment.

The Chicken Drum Skin Remover is in Patent Pending status within the United States Patent and Trademark Office.

Mr. Gilbert and Mr. Singh now seek a third party licensee to manufacture, market, and distribute the product for them under a royalty agreement. Potential licensees in the food accessories industry are currently being targeted as candidates to eventually commercialize the Chicken Drum Skin Remover on a worldwide basis.

In June 2014, Mr. Gilbert and Mr. Singh contracted Miami, Florida-based product management services leader Innovation Direct™ to represent the Chicken Drum Skin Remover to potential licensees for a 2 year period. Innovation Direct™ obtains the maximum amount of exposure for the products that it represents through its unique and patented licensing methodology and its participation in multiple and diverse industry-leading trade shows each year. Exhibits that Innovation Direct™ has attended in recent years include the SHOT Show, the International Home and Housewares Show, the World of Concrete Show, the National Hardware Show, Licensing International, the SEMA and AAPEX Shows and the ERA D2C Convention.
