All-In-One Hander Solder Gun Invention In Search of Licensee

An innovative and highly functional improvement on the entire soldering process, the All-In-One Hander Solder Gun, has been developed by Matthew Lowe of Spanish Fork, Utah. The invention's unique design enables it to effectively eliminate certain difficulties inherent in the use of conventional solder guns or irons.

The All-In-One Hander Solder Gun's proprietary features allow it to eliminate the need to use both hands when soldering. The product is capable of directing the solder to a precise point, eliminating messy drips. Additionally, the All-In-One Hander Solder Gun saves its users considerable time and effort when carrying out a soldering task. Furthermore, it is exceedingly easy to operate. Moreover, the All-In-One Hander Solder Gun features interchangeable tips to accommodate various sizes and types of solders. The product will also be competitively priced and made from durable materials, adding to its appeal and making it a wise investment.

The inventor of the All-In-One Hander Solder Gun previously developed a working prototype that was utilized with success for a period of time. The All-In-One Hander Solder Gun is also in Patent Pending status within the United States Patent and Trademark Office.

Mr. Lowe now seeks a third party licensee to manufacture, market, and distribute the product for him under a royalty agreement. Potential licensees in the soldering accessories industry are currently being targeted as candidates to eventually commercialize the All-In-One Hander Solder Gun on a worldwide basis.

In July 2014, Mr. Lowe contracted Miami, Florida-based product management services leader Innovation Direct™ to represent the All-In-One Hander Solder Gun to potential licensees for a 2 year period. Innovation Direct™ obtains the maximum amount of exposure for the products that it represents through its unique and patented licensing methodology and its participation in multiple and diverse industry-leading trade shows each year. Exhibits that Innovation Direct™ has attended in recent years include the SHOT Show, the International Home and Housewares Show, the World of Concrete Show, the National Hardware Show, Licensing International, the SEMA and AAPEX Shows and the ERA D2C Convention.
